

KIDS KASH Money Moment - Studies show that PARENTS are the #1 source where children learn about MONEY and form their HABITS – some studies report these are formed as early as age 7!

The STP Solution - Let them “catch you” in some money moments, then SHOW, TELL, & POINT – Just like Jesus and the parables – he would SHOW with a story (parable) that could be easily understood, he would TELL them the moral/meaning of the story, and would always POINT them to the Father.

STP Shopping List - SHOW them as you shop that you prepared a list so you would stay true to buy only what you planned and to stick to your budget. TELL them about the temptation of buying on impulse, or seeing something you want, but it's not something you need – Take some time to talk about “Need vs Want”. Then POINT them to God's word for authority
