

God is provider of all of our resources.

One of the first steps in exploring and setting your sights on God's financial plans that will take place through your life is to know where He has you right now.

This is a customizable WORD document table for you to record
God's financial Provision & Resources in your life.

Not only will this help centralize all of your information in one place, but it will serve as a wonderful record for current, future and testamentary reference for you, your family and your advisors.

Have fun and blessings!
